Dear Kain Costello

I am writing to explain why I am filling the Articles of Organization for Florida Limited Liability Company after the company was established on March 13, 2024.

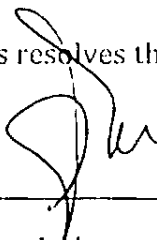

By mistake, the person who opened the company filed under a corporation instead of an LLC.

On August 23, 2024, we filed the Articles of Amendment to FL LLC to add Raysa Comesana as AMBR. The Department then realized the name was approved under the wrong form, so the amendment was denied.

I contacted the Department to correct the error, and they advised me to file Articles of Conversion from a Corporation to an LLC. However, this was also rejected on November 12, 2024. (See letter attached)

Once again, I contacted the Department, and I was advised to file Articles of Organization for Florida Limited Liability Company with a check for $55, which is the difference from the initial fee paid under a corporation form.

I hope this resolves the mistake and that we finally get it resolved.

Alexander Lahera Aguilera
