Article V—Effective Date

The effective date shall be the date of filing with the Florida Department of State.

Article VI—Other Provisions

a. Duration. The duration of the Limited Liability Company shall commence on the date these Articles of Organization are filed with the Florida Department of State and shall continue in perpetuity, unless sooner dissolved in conformity with law.

b. Purpose. The purpose of the Limited Liability Company is to engage in any and all lawful business for which a limited liability company may be organized under the laws of the State of Florida.

c. Management. The management of the Limited Liability Company shall be vested in its members.

d. Limitation of Liability. To the fullest extent permitted by Florida law, no member of this Limited Liability Company shall be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the Company.

e. Indemnification.

(i) Generally. The Limited Liability Company shall indemnify any individual who is or was a member, manager, officer, employee, or agent of the Limited Liability Company ("Indemnified Person") who was or is made a party to any proceeding by reason of the fact that individual is or was acting on behalf of the Limited Liability Company, to the fullest extent permitted under Chapter 605, Florida Statutes, against all liabilities and expenses incurred in the proceeding.

(ii) Advances of Expenses. Expenses, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred by an Indemnified Person in defending a proceeding shall be paid or reimbursed by the Limited Liability Company in advance of the final disposition of such proceeding upon receipt by the Limited Liability Company of a written undertaking from such Indemnified Person to repay the amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that the Indemnified Person is not entitled to indemnification.

(iii) Non-Exclusivity. The rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses conferred in this Article shall not be exclusive of any other right which any person may have or acquire under any statute, agreement, vote of members, or otherwise.

(iv) Authority. Except as otherwise provided by law, each authorized member shall have the power and authority to bind the Limited Liability Company in all transactions and business dealings of any kind, in the ordinary course of the Limited Liability Company's activities.

f. Amendments. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, these Articles of Organization may be amended from time to time by the affirmative vote of the members holding a majority of the membership interests of the Limited Liability Company unless a greater percentage is required by law.

g. Unanimous Written Consents in Lieu of Meetings of the Members. Any action required or permitted by law or these Articles of Organization to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken without a meeting if one or more written consents describing the action taken are signed by all members entitled to vote on the action. Such consents shall be delivered to the Limited Liability Company for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the Limited Liability Company's records, and the action shall be deemed effective as of the date specified in the consent(s), or if no date is specified, on the date the last member required to reach unanimity signs the consent. A signed consent may be delivered in paper or electronic form, or in any manner permitted by applicable law, and such delivery shall be as valid and effective as a signature delivered in person.

h. Governing Law. These Articles of Organization shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida without regard to conflicts of law principles.

Required Signature

This document is executed in accordance with § 605.0203(1)(b), Florida Statutes. I am aware that any false information submitted in a document to the Department of State constitutes a third-degree felony as provided for in § 817.155, Florida Statutes.
